

JEFFERY STRIDE

Jeffery Stride est né à Southampton, Angleterre en 1946. Il étudie la peinture à la Camberwell School of Art de Londres avant de partir peindre en Pays de Galles. Avec sa femme, Sally, ils viennent vivre dans le Lot en France en 1971.

Il a fait des expositions solo et parfois en duo avec Sally à Paris (galeries Horizon, Nichido, Triangle, Racine, Notre Dame), à Londres (Browse and Darby, Fountain Court, Burgh House art galleries), en Suisse (galerie Motte, Genève, galerie Francis, Gstadt) et aux USA (Elaine Benson N.Y., Alliance Française, Minneapolis).

Son livre de peintures sur le Lot « La Rivière Tranquille » a été publié en 2015.

Les Stride habitent depuis 1989 dans le petit village de Vers, au bord de la rivière.

JEFFERY STRIDE

Jeffery Stride was born in Southampton, England in 1946. He studied painting at Camberwell School of Art in London, painted for two years in North Wales then came to live in the Lot departement of France in 1971, with his wife, Sally Davies.

He has had solo exhibitions and shared shows with Sally in Paris (galleries Horizon, Nichido, Triangle, Racine, Notre Dame) in London (Browse and Darby, Fountain Court, Borough House Art Gallery, La Galleria) in Switzerland (galerie Motte, Geneva, galerie Francis, Gstadt) and in the USA (Elaine Benson Gallery N.Y. and the Alliance Française, Minneapolis) among many other venues.

His book of paintings of the river Lot “The Quiet River” was published in 2015.

The Strides have lived since 1989 in the little village of Vers , on the banks of the river Lot.